

Sensory Stories - Resources

Epic Adventure – Dragon’s Lair

Big Macs – we use a number of big mac switches to switch sounds, like the dragons roar.

Coloured sheets to use as capes

A darkened area in the classroom to use as the cave

A dragon

Shiny, tactile objects and hand held light sources for treasure

A drum for dragon’s foot steps

A cauldron

Herbs

Red and yellow cellophane to make sounds of the crackling fire

Bowls of water and straws to make the sound of the bubbling cauldron

A smell for the final potion

A box of pebbles for the cave collapsing.

Pirates

Parachute – for crossing the sea

Head scarves

A toy parrot

Cannon Balls

Ocean drums

The Enchanted Forest

Violin

Branches and leaves

A drum for banging the approaching steps of the faeries.

Other Musical instruments to play along to the music

Out Fly the Bees

Kazoos

Fake flowers

Flower smells – eg. rose oil, lavender etc...

A cow’s ‘Moo’ recorded on a big mac and curtain tassel for a tail.

Drums for the marching band

Bird song whistles or switch toy

Water to splash for the fish and toy fish

Light sources for glow worms

Toy train and whistle

Toy cat and meow recorded on big mac

Magic Carpet Ride to India

The beginning:

Parachute

Wheel-projector or other light sources.

The Maharaja:

Gong

The Market:

Dried fruit – raisins, dates, apricots etc...

Silken sheets or saris

Herbs and spices – cumin, coriander, curry powder etc...

The Snake Charmer:

Snake charmer puppet

Rubber snakes

Tambourines and drums

The temple:

Joss sticks

Indian trinkets, bracelets and bells

Finger bells

Magic Carpet Ride to China

The beginning:

Parachute – for take-off and landing

Wheel-projector or other light sources – for the vortex

The Emperor's attack:

Gong

The market

Chinese spices – for the market

Rice

The health store

Chinese fans

Chinese Medicine Balls

Hand Cream

The parade

A large dragon toy

Lots of small dragon toys

Trinkets and jingles

Incense sticks

Magic Carpet Ride to Japan

Parachute - for take-off and landing

Wheel-projector or other light sources – for the vortex

The evil Mikado:

Gong

The Sushi Bar:

Plastic sushi

Sushi rice

Green tea

Soy sauce

Chopsticks

The Taiko Drummers:

Drums

The Temple:

Japanese lanterns

Trinkets and jingles

Incense sticks

Japanese fan